The Bradford Choral is a local choral society of around eighty voices which rehearses in Saltaire. The choir has been performing a widely varied repertoire of religious and secular choral music to Bradford audiences for more than twenty-five years.

Four concerts make up the 2011/2012 season and feature professional soloists and orchestral ensembles. For £35, a significant saving on the cost of purchasing individual tickets, subscribers receive a ticket for each of the concerts at the beginning of the season, and a free copy of the programme on the day of the concert (on production of their ticket).
